NOTES

Qualifications

An applicant who meets either one of the following requirements may apply for water service plumber licence;

- (a) (i) Possess a Builder Certificate in Plumbing & Pipefitting issued by the BCA Academy or other such qualifications as may be acceptable to PUB; and
- (ii) At least 2 years' relevant post-qualification plumbing experience under Licensed Water Service Plumber(s)

OR

- (b) Possess an Advanced Builder Certificate in Plumbing & Pipefitting issued by the BCA Academy or such other qualifications as may be acceptable to PUB.

Applicant who is issued with lifetime licence and has reached 65 years or older is required to obtain certification from a Registered Medical Practitioner (RMP) once every 3 years certifying him fit to carry out and/or supervise plumbing works. The RMP form can be downloaded from the PUB website at www.pub.gov.sg.

Applicants will be examined on the following:

- Public Utilities Act
- Public Utilities (Water Supply) Regulations;
- Singapore Standard CP48 - Code of Practice for Water Services
- Handbook on Application for Water Supply
- Knowledge of plumbing practices

Contribution to Medisave for New Applicants

Under the CPF Act, the CPF Board requires all self-employed persons to pay Medisave contributions as long as they earn a yearly net trade income of more than $6,000.

For application of new licences, applicants must ensure that they have paid up their Medisave liabilities or have arranged for payment by instalment. For more information on the Medisave for the Self-Employed Scheme or to check the Medisave payment status for licence application or renewal, please logon to the CPF website at www.cpf.gov.sg
