Spot these

Dragonfly
A beautiful and agile insect that can fly at speeds of up to 70 km/h. They have long, slender bodies and colorful wings.

Egret
A large white bird with long legs and a long neck. They are often found wading in shallow waters.

Grey-headed Fish Eagle
A large bird of prey with a distinctive grey head and white body. They are found in forests and wetlands.

Have fun in Macritchie

Kayaking
Once you’ve donned your life jacket, you’re ready to hit the water on a kayak. It’s a great way to explore the natural beauty of the area.

Treetop walk
Get a closer view of the wildlife as you walk through the canopy of trees.

Jogging / Strolling
Take a leisurely stroll through the park or enjoy a gentle jog along the pathways.

Fishing

- Use only allowed tackle to keep the marine life healthy.
- Practice catch-and-release to maintain fish stocks.
- Use only designated, line-throwing methods.
- Respect the nature and the environment.
- Ensure that your catches are weighed and released properly.

Interesting Facts

- Reservoir formed in 1867
- Deepest part of the reservoir is 7.5 m or approximately 62 drink cans stacked on top of each other.
- Reservoir has a perimeter of 17 km or approximately 970 scooters lined together.
- Widest part of the reservoir is 2.6 km or approximately the width of 16 Singapore Flyers.

Green carpark
The carpark is the first of its kind in Singapore, serving as a model for sustainable living.

 Events on Water!

- Common Bream
  - Adult breams have a round, olive-green body with a white belly. Males have black spots on their chin and throat.

- Copper-cheeked Frog
  - A small, attractive frog with copper-colored cheeks and white underparts.

- Copperhead Snake
  - A venomous snake with a copper-colored head.

- Crocodile
  - A large reptile that can grow up to 6 meters long.

- Dugong
  - A sea cow that can swim and dive in the ocean.

- Giant Clam
  - A large, edible clam found in tropical waters.

- Green Turtle
  - A large, herbivorous turtle that can weigh up to 1,000 pounds.

- Humpback Whale
  - A large whale that can grow up to 50 feet long.

- Jellyfish
  - A small, transparent marine creature that can be dangerous to humans.

- Kelp
  - A type of seaweed that can grow up to 30 feet tall.

- Leech
  - A blood-sucking worm that can attach to humans and animals.

- Lionfish
  - A venomous fish that can grow up to 2 feet long.

- Marine Iguana
  - A large lizard that can swim and dive in the ocean.

- Manta Ray
  - A large, locomotive fish that can accidentally hit humans.

- Ostrich
  - A large, flightless bird that can run up to 50 miles per hour.

- Pufferfish
  - A small, colorful fish that can inflate itself as a defense mechanism.

- River Otter
  - A small, aquatic mammal that can swim and dive in the ocean.

- Sea cucumber
  - A small, inactive creature that can be found on the ocean floor.

- Seal
  - A large, carnivorous mammal that can swim and dive in the ocean.

- Shark
  - A large, predatory fish that can grow up to 20 feet long.

- Turtle
  - A large, egg-laying reptile that can swim and dive in the ocean.

- Whale
  - A large, mammalian creature that can grow up to 100 feet long.

- White-throated Kingfisher
  - A small, black bird with a white throat and blue-black wings.

Conserving Water
Use water wisely by turning off the tap when not using it. Remember, water is a precious resource.

Visiting Water
Help keep our waters clean by not littering or throwing debris into them. They can damage our ecosystem.

Enjoying Our Waters
Boating on the water can be a delightful way to enjoy the natural beauty of the area. Please remember to follow the rules and regulations.